

Cookie Policy v2.0

1. COOKIES

1.1 The Site uses cookies to distinguish You from other users. This helps us to provide You with a good experience when You browse the Site and also allows us to improve the Site.

1.2 A cookie is a small file of letters and numbers that We store on Your browser or the hard drive of Your computer if You agree. Cookies contain information that is transferred to Your computer's hard drive.

1.3 We use the following cookies:

(a) Strictly necessary cookies. These are cookies that are required for the operation of the Site. They include, for example, cookies that enable You to log into secure areas of the Site.

(b) Analytical or performance cookies. These allow us to recognise and count the number of visitors and to see how visitors move around the Site when they are using it. This helps us to improve the way our website works, for example, by ensuring that users are finding what they are looking for easily.

(c) Functionality cookies. These are used to recognise You when you return to the Site. This enables us to personalise our content for You, greet You by name and remember Your preferences.

(d) Target cookies. These cookies record Your visit to the Site, the pages You have visited and the links You have followed. We will use this information to make the Site more relevant to Your interests.

1.4 You can find more information about the individual cookies We use and the purposes for which We use them in the table below.

1.5 You can block cookies by activating the setting on Your browser that allows You to refuse the setting of all or some cookies. However, if You use Your browser settings to block all cookies (including essential cookies) You may not be able to access all or parts of the Site.
